

Some Experiences of ICP...

The ICP promotes personal growth. This growth has helped me to become a better person, inside and out.

Shree E.

The ICP has become a very healing place for me - like coming into a loving womb.

Helene V.

Every ICP speaker brings a unique perspective to the vigorous debate over how people of faith and ethical values can bring compassion to all aspects of our lives. Every month I leave challenged and inspired.

Paul F.

The ICP Program has been an amazing growth-filled experience for me. I have renewed faith in the future of our world and have been given tools and practices to help make that world a more compassionate place.

An experience
To deepen compassionate living
In personal and professional life

2009

Compassion speaks of the willingness to engage with tragedy, loss, and pain.

It is here that you learn about the depths of tolerance and understanding that are possible for each one of us.

It is here that you learn about dignity, meaning, and greatness of heart.
